Fatigued to Fantastic! Revitalizing Sleep Formula Review

by Enzymatic Therapy

Is Fatigued to Fantastic! Revitalizing Sleep Formula Right For You?

Enzymatic Therapy is the company that offers Fatigued to Fantastic! Revitalizing Sleep Formula. They have been involved with the manufacturing of various products like this for more than a decade.

Enzymatic Therapy is located in the state of Wisconsin, and their website does offer a full address if you need it. They also offer a toll free number and a ticket support system. Orders can be placed over the phone or through their secure website.

Should you order this product you want to hang onto your invoice. There is a 60 day money back guarantee offer. However, the site states that you must contact them to get a RMA first. That number has to be written on the package. They also require a copy of the original purchase invoice.

They only accept returns on products that are sealed. If you have opened this product to try it then they won't give you the money back. Since there doesn't seem to be any free trials of this product though that does seem unfair to the customer.
